Rejoice, Ye Saints of Latter Days, CCS 81

Rejoice, ye saints of latter days, lift up your heads and sing!
With one accord unite to praise your everlasting King.
No more in darkness need you walk, nor tread in error's night, for the Most High again has called the darkness into light.

The Holy Spirit is sent down as in the days of old to bring to mind things that are past and things to come, unfold.
Oh, may it rest upon us now while we're assembled here,
bring consolation to our souls, our drooping spirits cheer.

Oh, may it ever guide our feet in ways of righteousness that we may be accounted meet to dwell in blessedness.

In the Crossroads of This Moment, CCS 170

In the crossroads of this moment when past and future meet, we would pause to sing your praises, that joy may be complete.
Thank you, God, for gifts of music, for the songs we sing and play, for the poets and composers who taught our hearts to pray.
Keep us faithful to the values they labored to uphold, for the treasure they bequeathed us shines bright like burnished gold.

In the crossroads of this moment we glimpse the time to come:
the horizon of the new earth where your whole will is done.
Leaning forward to the future, still we strain to hear the sound of the distant holy chorus, the saints who yet surround.
May the whisper of the Spirit inspire tomorrow's ways, that your church may sing your glory with psalms and hymns of praise.

Let Us Break Bread Together, CCS 521

Let us break bread together on our knees; let us break bread together on our knees.
When I fall on my knees, with my face to the rising sun,
O Lord, have mercy on me.

Let us drink wine together on our knees; let us drink wine together on our knees.
When I fall on my knees, with my face to the rising sun,
O Lord, have mercy on me.

Let us praise God together on our knees. Let us praise God together on our knees.
When I fall on my knees, with my face to the rising sun,
O Lord, have mercy on me. Amen.

For All the Saints, CCS 331

For all the saints, who from their labors rest, all who their faith before the world confessed, your name, O Jesus, be forever blest. Alleluia! Alleluia!

May we your saints, your servants true and bold, serve as the saints who nobly lived of old,
the world to bless and with your love enfold. Alleluia! Alleluia!

O blest communion, fellowship divine! We feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
yet all are one within your grand design. Alleluia! Alleluia!

From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast, from age to age resounds the countless host, in praise to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
